City Election 2023

This year on November 7th, the residents of the city of Lawton will be voting for those who will be representing them on the City Council and as their Mayor. Up for election this year is Mayor (2 year term) and two City Council seats (4 year terms). Persons interested in running for election must file nomination papers with the Woodbury County Auditor at the City Clerk's Office. The required papers include an Affidavit of Candidacy and a Nominating Petition containing at least 10 eligible elector's signatures. The first day for filing is Monday, August 28 and the last day is September 21 by 5:00pm. Papers are available at the City Clerk's office, or online at the Iowa Secretary of State's website.
